GO FOR THE GOLDS

Good-bye dark and gray. Hello bright and warm. Now a rich palette of honey, gold, caramel and bronze enhances the Conference Center's striking ambience. Extensive additional lighting throughout helps you better appreciate the new carpets and wall coverings. Embossed glass, organic patterns and tactile details provide a pleasing backdrop for the business at hand.

A comfortable, spacious lobby greets your group on each of our conference floors. Featuring an eye-popping floral arrangement, plush fabric wall panels and cozy seating, the area has the style power to entice impromptu gatherings or casual conversations. Electronic reader boards, some dramatically displayed on gem-colored wavy glass panels, keep everyone on top of the day's agenda.

Off each lobby, attractive break areas, featuring a different assortment of refreshments each day, provide another informal meeting spot. Each floor also offers Internet kiosks for handy e-mail checks. Well-lit hallways lead to completely updated meeting rooms, all furnished with new tables in solid, light-colored wood that contrast attractively with our famous black leather "eight hour" chairs.

HIGH PERFORMANCE FEATURES

- High-speed Internet access, of-the-moment audiovisual capabilities
- Multi-zone lighting, non-glare tables, ergonomic chairs
- Display rails, tackable wall surfaces, whiteboards
- Electronic room kiosks update room/meeting information easily

TIMES SQUARE AND BROADWAY

You asked for more space, so our renovation project included reconfiguring the Conference Center to address your need for larger, more flexible meeting rooms. The two results—our Times Square and Broadway rooms—have met with resounding approval.

The 4th-floor Times Square changes from all-business meeting room to high-style banquet space with the flip of a switch. In addition to the enhanced lighting that has been added to all of our meeting rooms, this spacious room can pulsate with color like its namesake, thanks to its fully adjustable LED light system. The circular glass lights, which appear to float from the ceiling, are adjustable in both color and intensity, so you can change from quiet blues to bold reds to create just the right mood.

Two floors up, our Broadway room offers a similar size and capacity. With expansive windows overlooking Midtown and Times Square, this highly adaptable space has its own entry and break area, welcome features when privacy is of the utmost importance.

FLEXIBLE SPACES

- Seating up to 102 classroom and 160 banquet
- Drop-down LCD projectors hide in ceiling when not in use
- Tackable walls, whiteboards and other IACC-standard amenities

Reserved exclusively for groups, this sophisticated space easily adapts to your needs, providing a smart business lunch that's ready when you are or a stylish venue for dinner presentations and cocktail receptions. What's more, our catering team thrives on special requests. THE HISTORIC HUDSON THEATRE

Want to launch a new product, celebrate an achievement or make a grand statement? Turn your event into a Broadway smash by staging it on an authentic stage. Millennium Conference Center's flexible space includes the magnificent Hudson Theatre. The only Broadway theater regularly available for meetings and functions, the Hudson Theatre has been carefully restored to its 1903 opening night splendor.

Not only did restoration specialists bring back the theater's exquisite Beaux Arts details, they uncovered mint-condition Tiffany mosaic tiles under decades-old paint and plaster. This extraordinary discovery has put this vintage gem back in the limelight. Retrofitted to handle your most exacting technical requirements, the Hudson Theatre embraces its second century with newfound grace and purpose.

STAGE NOTES

- Flexible seating comfortably accommodates up to 700
- Grand lobby area for registration
- Broadway-caliber lighting and sound
- Custom-designed carpets and stage curtains
- Gold-gilded Queen's boxes
